

Question: Who is the local history room named for and can I correspond with her if I need additional information?

Answer: This room is named for Mrs. GERTRUDE CASLER MANN and her picture appears below. Mrs. Mann passed away in 1988 and her correspondences were the beginning for this room. Additional materials, formerly housed at Stanley Library at Ferrum College, also helped this room get started.

Question: When is the MANN ROOM open? Is assistance available for this room? Can the books in this be checked out?

Answer: The room is open during regular library hours. The resident genealogist's desk can be found in the local history room. If she is not at her desk then she may be assisting patron's elsewhere or teaching class. Books found in this room are for in-library use only and do not circulate.

Question: How do I use this room?

Answer: Book will be available just inside the room to sign in.

Question: Can I make copies from this room?

Answer: Yes, copies are 15¢ a page and the copier is located outside the local history room. Just put the money in the coin box provided.

Question: Can I buy copies of any of the materials found in this room?

Answer: Limited number of the Bicentennial Reflections book and the Franklin County History Book by Salmon are available for purchase. Just ask the circulation desk for copies
